

The Pachakuti Mesa Tradition: Cross-Cultural Shamanic Arts for Personal and Planetary Renewal

Do you seek harmony, health and community in your life?
Wishing to experience a deeper relationship with nature and unseen realms? Are you called to a path of healing service?

"Gary Langston is the quintessential gentleman, healer, and guide. He intuitively understands the needs of the group and sets up an alchemical, magical field for the participants to have the most glorious experience possible. We were allowed to go as deep as necessary for our journey and healing intentions. The apprenticeship workshop exceeded my expectations and laid a foundation for the next steps in my journey in life. I am grateful for this community."

This Apprenticeship has been carefully crafted to offer people from all walks of life a heartfelt initiation into the healing power and earth honoring ceremonial artistry of the Pachakuti Mesa Tradition (PMT), as originated by world-renowned kamasqa curandero don Oscar Miro-Quesada. Inspired by the living soul which sustains the various ancient traditions of Peruvian Curanderismo, the Pachakuti Mesa Tradition maintains contemporary relevance in its dedication to compassionate personal and planetary transformation.

Sanctioned by the PMT Lineage and by don Oscar, curandero and stellar teacher REV. DR. GARY LANGSTON is offering the PMT Apprenticeship in Pincher Creek, Alberta, Canada, beginning in April, 2017.

Rev. Dr. Gary Langston (Red Bear Who Sees All Worlds) is a shamanic counselor, ordained minister and holds a Doctorate of Divinity in Metaphysics and Spirituality. His Northern Cherokee tribal membership, apprenticeships within many Native traditions and his natural intuitive abilities guide his work in helping others find sacred space within their own hearts. Called upon by his own tribe as medicine man, Gary serves with respect, honor and love.
